PASTOR'S MESSAGE:

Celebrating Thankfulness

November, already! Cooler temperatures and falling leaves usher in a season of family and community gatherings. Some years ago, our nation dedicated the fourth Thursday of each November as Thanksgiving Day. A day set aside to express gratitude, especially to God. We have come a long way (baby). Many of our gatherings leave out the ‘God part’.

We can regain the ‘God part’. I believe that our focus on material gain has lessened our dependence on God. As if what we have did not come from somewhere else. We have been taught to hoard what we have, that more is better, and that we’ll never have enough. Consider living with a sense of abundance, not scarcity.

Live with a sense of abundance, not scarcity. The sense of scarcity does not compute in God’s economy. In God’s economy, there is more than enough for everyone. In God’s economy, our lives are enriched by living generously and being assured of God’s abundance.

May November be a time in which generosity and giving, as a spiritual practice, be renewed. Let our focus be on appreciating all we have. In contrast to being oblivious of an overflowing excess. Think simplicity and contentment — we don’t have to have a lot for it to be enough.

“Unless people can get enough food and nutrition to feed their families, everyone loses not only the families who do not have enough to eat, but all of us as well. Those in need of food and nutrition deprive all of us of the contributions that they can make as citizens, not only in the workforce, but also as stable members of our communities.” By Skip Winter of First Presbyterian Church of Cranford

"SOUNDS OF THE SEASON - A FREE HOLIDAY CONCERT": This coming December 4th, a

Saturday night, Townley Church will be sponsoring a free holiday concert for the community. The show will be three hours long, starting at 6:30PM to about 9:30PM featuring holiday music in multiple genres; from rock/blues/folk to jazz groups, with traditional solos, duets, instrumentals and even traditional organ. Professional musicians, groups, and even talented Townley folk will be performing renditions of holiday favorites, including some audience participation tunes. The show will be upstairs in the sanctuary, with Christmas decorations, special lighting in the chancel and decorations inside the church. A "free will" offering box or bowl will be in the Narthex for donations to a yet-to-be-named charity.

This is a community outreach event, opening up Townley Church to the "outside community". As the next month rolls by, every member of Townley will be asked to participate in the planning, organization, and actual running of the event. Many have different skills in areas that are much needed, such as Promotion/publicity, Sanctuary Decorating, Setup/Teardown of the show, inside "Hosts" (Think ushers) and front door greeters for the attending public. Folks who are "friends of Townley" but not officially church members are also welcome to join us and help. We need every church member to help with promoting the show starting now and through the fall until the show; by word-of-mouth, Facebook, online, newspaper and online media, posting flyers, etc., etc. (We're open to ideas!)

The core organizing team members are: Pastor Ron Thompson, Cynthia Manno, Janet Sangekar, Bill Jensen, Lisa Heims, Lois Tangowski and Bruce Tangowski

We have already begun to tap some of you for specific areas where we feel you can help, but if you have a skill or area of interest you would like to help with, please contact one of us as soon as possible.

We envision a full sanctuary watching wonderful musical performances!

SAVE THE DATE – For our Christmas Party on Friday, December 10, 2021 at 6:00pm. It will be held at: La Casa Di Martino, 301 West Clay Avenue, Roselle Park, NJ 07204.

Reservations and cost of $30.00 per person (cash preferred) are appreciated as soon as possible, but no later than November 28th to Lisa Heims or Kathy Kreie. The restaurant requires a minimum of 30, with a maximum of 50 people.

THE CENTER FOR LIFELONG LEARNING (COLUMBIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY): For church professionals and lay people, Columbia's Center for Lifelong Learning provides non-degree courses and events—opportunities to learn with and from others for faithful discipleship. Led by top-notch seminary faculty, our offerings are biblically and theologically grounded, with a practical focus to help participants identify and address specific, real-life needs. Consider these upcoming opportunities.

REGARDING RULING ELDERS: A MONTHLY SERIES FOR SERVING FAITHFULLY

Leaders Dance by Rodger Nishioka – October 15, 2021

Several years ago, I was honored to be the keynote speaker at a weekend youth retreat for the Presbytery of the Cascades. We met at a beautiful retreat center outside of Portland, Oregon. As the young people and adults gathered on Friday evening, I met Marissa, a high school freshman who was paraplegic. She was quiet and a bit shy and moved around well in her wheelchair. I told her I was so glad she was with us for the weekend.

We did our best to include Marissa, but because of limited accessibility, she had to stay in the main lodge instead of in the cabins with the other young people. It was a rainy weekend, so she could not join us on the muddy field for group games. One of the other young people was the opposite of Marissa. His name was Darin. He was a tall, loud, borderline obnoxious, athletic high school senior. He loved attention and seemed to enjoy pushing boundaries.

On Saturday night, we gathered in the main lodge for a dance. Most of the “dances” were energizers the group had been taught. It was great fun. Marissa participated when she could, but most of the time she stayed against the wall of the room. After about 45 minutes, Darin claimed the microphone and told everyone to get one of the chairs stacked against the walls. For reasons that are beyond me, all of us obeyed him. He told us to scatter the chairs around the floor and sit in them. Then Darin looked over at Marissa and yelled at her, “Marissa! Come on! Let’s dance!” Marissa made her way toward Darin, the music started up again, and all of us danced while sitting in our chairs.

Leaders dance. Leaders dance in ways that welcome everyone of every ability. For the rest of the evening, Marissa stayed on the dance floor. Sometimes most of the group was sitting down. Sometimes most of the group was standing up. But all of the time Darin was moving around the room encouraging the younger and more shy students to join us. Every time I sing “I Danced in the Morning,” my heart brings me back to Marissa and Darin, and I give thanks for their teaching us a whole new way to dance.

Leaders dance.

We Are Thankful By Joanna Fuchs

*Dear Lord, we are thankful for this day, set aside to honor all the ways
You bless us with Your goodness, love, and grace.
We are thankful for the people at this table who add a variety of wonderful things to our lives just by being who they are.
We are thankful for the food we are about to eat, which You created for our nourishment and pleasure.
Most of all, Lord, we thank You for always being there for us, guiding us, encouraging us, comforting us and blessing us.
In Jesus’ name we pray; Amen.*
