

PRALLSVILLE MILL WATERCOLOR PAINTING

Hi everyone.

Over the next several weeks and into September, I 'm going to share some progressive pictures of a watercolor painting I recently finished. Since my monthly Salem Roadhouse Café live music shows have closed down due to the COVID-19 situation, I have taken to working more often on some of my other favorite hobbies, art work being one of them.

I plan to auction it off to raise some charity funds for an organization that Roadhouse shows were dedicated to this year: the Union County YWCA's Domestic Violence Programs' sub-program, called PALS. (Peace—A Learned Solution) This is a program that helps children who are victims of domestic violence express themselves through therapeutic art, crafts and various creative outlets. Our 2020 mission was to donate the music show funds to this important program.

I will post these on the Roadhouse and my personal Facebook pages as well as the Roadhouse email list. They will be narratives about how, what, why of the work showing how piece developed. I am asking my church family to help me out by sharing the narratives and posts with your Facebook and other social media platforms in order to garner interest in the auction. The date and method of the auction will be announced soon. I hope you also enjoy them.

Thanking you in advance, let's make this a success. Another artist friend of mine and big-time Roadhouse fan has offered one of her wonderful paintings to be auctioned after mine, also for the cause.
